1. OUR NEW BOOK, In Our Own Voices, BECAME A REALITY!

Thank you Villagers, for buying out our first shipment of books! Our second edition is available for purchase at Town Hall. Great for gift giving and memory boxes for grands.

2. THE BROADHEAD SILHOUETTE PROJECT IS IN FULL SWING!

Thank you to Villager Mark Saltzman, for fabricating and powder-coating the new aluminum silhouettes for the street signs. Thank you to Mayor Schneider and our Service Department for making the plan to install them on new tall white poles in the Village.

3. A BRAND NEW SPEAKERS' FORUM AT THE HUNT CLUB

Watch our Pink Sheet page for details on a series of talks in conjunction with The Western Reserve Historical Society. Talks are planned for this fall and will have a historical theme. This series of talks will be open to everyone.

4. AN ENDOWMENT FOR THE MUSEUM AT THE SOUTHWICK HOUSE *

Thanks to the late Tucker Marston's bequest of $25,000 to The Historical Society, we have begun an endowment fund to ensure the future of The Museum at The Southwick House! All Villagers and friends of The Historical Society may also contribute to this fund. Details are forthcoming.

5. A CENTENNIAL TOUR OF HISTORICAL SITES

All Aboard! Lolly the Trolley will ferry history fans around the Village to several sites where docents will give a brief history of each site. Cameras are a must! Watch the Pink Sheet for details!
